	CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY
	INFORMATION REPORT	·
TRY	Hungary
ECT	Fuel Depot at Szederkény
E ACQUI	RED
SOURCE)
ACQUIR SOURCE)	ED	19 no. 1952
		DATE DISTR. 28 Dec 1953
	THIS UDCUMENT CONTAINS INFORMATION AFFECTING THE NATIONAL DEFENSE OF THE UNITED STATES, BITHIN THE MEANING OF TITLE 18, STOTIONS 783	NO. OF PAGES 1
·	AND 784, OF THE U.S. CODE, AS AMENDED. ITS TRANSMISSION OF MEYE- lation of its contents to or receipt by an unauthorized person is	NO, OF ENCLS.
	THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION	SUPP. TO REPORT NO.
		·
1.	The fuel depot of Szederkény is on the PécsWoha	cs highway, about twenty name Nyomja is usually the
1.	kilometers east of Pécs. On older maps the place only one that appears. Szederkény and Nyomja wer	name Nyomja is usually the
	kilometers east of Pécs. On older maps the place only one that appears. Szederkény and Nyomja wer under the name Szederkény in 1950.  The depat occupied a space of about four by eight	name Nyomja is usually the effirst brought together numbered meters, north of the
1.	kilometers east of Péos. On older maps the place only one that appears. Szederkény and Nyomja wer under the name Szederkény in 1950.  The depot occupied a space of about four by eight bighway. The Péos-Mohacs highway is of great imp	name Nyomja is usually the effirst brought together nundred meters, north of the ortunce, since these two big kilometers east of Péos. On older maps the place only one that appears. Szederkény and Nyomja wer under the name Szederkény in 1950.  The depot occupied a space of about four by eight highway. The Péos-Mohacs highway is of great impindustrial cities can be reached by rail only thr has about twenty-five fuel tanks. They are about	name Nyomja is usually the effirst brought together  number meters, north of the ortunce, since these two big ough many detours. The depot fifteen meters long by seven
	kilometers east of Péos. On older maps the place only one that appears. Szederkény and Nyomja wer under the name Szederkény in 1950.  The depot occupied a space of about four by eight highway. The Péos-Mohacs highway is of great impindustrial cities can be reached by rail only thr has about twenty-five fuel tanks. They are about to eight meters wide. They are buried about ten they are hard to see from above, being concealed	name Nyomja is usually the effirst brought together  nundred meters, north of the ortunce, since these two big ough many detours. The depot fifteen meters long by seven meters deep, under concrete.
	kilometers east of Pécs. On older maps the place only one that appears. Szederkény and Nyomja wer under the name Szederkény in 1950.  The depot occupied a space of about four by eight highway. The Pécs-Mohacs highway is of great impindustrial cities can be reached by rail only thr has about twenty-five fuel tanks. They are about to eight meters wide. They are buried about ten in they are hard to see from above, being concealed is by ladders.	name Nyomja is usually the effirst brought together  nundred meters, north of the ordance, since these two big ough many detours. The depot fifteen meters long by seven meters deep, under concrete. by foliage and turf. Entrance
	kilometers east of Pécs. On older maps the place only one that appears. Szederkény and Nyomja wer under the name Szederkény in 1950.  The depot occupied a space of about four by eight highway. The Pécs-Mohacs highway is of great impindustrial cities can be reached by rail only thr has about twenty-five fuel tanks. They are about to eight meters wide. They are buried about ten in they are hard to see from above, being concealed is by ladders.  They are guarded by about forty or fifty Soviet sat the entrance. The guard has telephone command.	name Nyomja is usually the effirst brought together  nundred meters, north of the ordance, since these two big ough many detours. The depot fifteen meters long by seven meters deep, under concrete. by foliage and turf. Entrance cidiers. The one-story guardhouse unication with its unit at Pécs,
2.	kilometers east of Pécs. On older maps the place only one that appears. Szederkény and Nyomja wer under the name Szederkény in 1950.  The depot occupied a space of about four by eight highway. The Pécs-Mohacs highway is of great impindustrial cities can be reached by rail only thr has about twenty-five fuel tanks. They are about to eight meters wide. They are buried about ten: They are hard to see from above, being concealed is by ladders.  They are guarded by about forty or fifty Soviet s is at the entrance. The guard has telephone command also with Budapest. By day, the depot is guarntanclements. At night this zone is illuminated	name Nyomja is usually the effirst brought together  nundred meters, north of the orbance, since these two big ough many detours. The depot fifteen meters long by seven meters deep, under concrete. by foliage and turf. Entrance  cidiers. The one-story guardhouse unication with its unit at Pécs, rded by posts inside barbed wire and patrolied. The local
2.	kilometers east of Pécs. On older maps the place only one that appears. Szederkény and Nyomja wer under the name Szederkény in 1950.  The depot occupied a space of about four by eight highway. The Pécs-Mohacs highway is of great impindustrial cities can be reached by rail only thrhas about twenty-five fuel tanks. They are about to eight meters wide. They are buried about ten if they are hard to see from above, being concealed is by ladders.  They are guarded by about forty or fifty Soviet s is at the entrance. The guard has telephone command also with Budapest. By day, the depot is guarntanglements. At night this zone is illuminated population is forbidden to approach the wire. The	name Nyomja is usually the effirst brought together  nundred meters, north of the orbance, since these two big ough many detours. The depot fifteen meters long by seven meters deep, under concrete. by foliage and turf. Entrance  cidiers. The one-story guardhouse unication with its unit at Pécs, rded by posts inside barbed wire and patrolied. The local
2. 3.	kilometers east of Pécs. On older maps the place only one that appears. Szederkény and Nyomja wer under the name Szederkény in 1950.  The depot occupied a space of about four by eight highway. The Pécs-Mohacs highway is of great impindustrial cities can be reached by rail only three has about twenty-five fuel tanks. They are about to eight meters wide. They are buried about tentral to see from above, being concealed is by ladders.  They are guarded by about forty or fifty Soviet s is at the entrance. The guard has telephone command also with Budapest. By day, the depot is guaentanglements. At night this zone is illuminated population is forbidden to approach the wire. There is another fuel depot at Ocsa, twenty-five	name Nyomja is usually the effirst brought together  nundred meters, north of the ordance, since these two big ough many detours. The depot fifteen meters long by seven meters deep, under concrete. by foliage and turf. Entrance  cidiers. The one-story guardhouse unication with its unit at Pécs, reded by posts inside barbed wire and patrolied. The local e guards fire without varning,  kilometers south of Budapest. Its
2.	kilometers east of Pécs. On older maps the place only one that appears. Szederkény and Nyomja wer under the name Szederkény in 1950.  The depot occupied a space of about four by eight highway. The Pécs-Mohacs highway is of great impindustrial cities can be reached by rail only thrhas about twenty-five fuel tanks. They are about to eight meters wide. They are buried about tent to eight meters wide. They are buried about tent they are hard to see from above, being concealed is by ladders.  They are guarded by about forty or fifty Soviet s is at the entrance. The guard has telephone command also with Budapest. By day, the depot is gual entanglements. At night this zone is illuminated population is forbidden to approach the wire. The fany one approaches the wired zone.  There is another fuel depot at Ocsa, twenty-five is on the single-track EudapestKecskemét railwa	name Nyomja is usually the effirst brought together  nundred meters, north of the ordance, since these two big ough many detours. The depot fifteen meters long by seven meters deep, under concrete. by foliage and turf. Entrance  cidiers. The one-story guardhouse unication with its unit at Pécs, ried by posts inside barbed wire and patrolied. The local e guards fire without varning,  kilometers south of Budapest. It y line. On a small scale, is alread
2. 3.	kilometers east of Pécs. On older maps the place only one that appears. Szederkény and Nyomja wer under the name Szederkény in 1950.  The depot occupied a space of about four by eight highway. The Pécs-Mohacs highway is of great impindustrial cities can be reached by rail only three has about twenty-five fuel tanks. They are about to eight meters wide. They are buried about tentral to see from above, being concealed is by ladders.  They are guarded by about forty or fifty Soviet s is at the entrance. The guard has telephone command also with Budapest. By day, the depot is guaentanglements. At night this zone is illuminated population is forbidden to approach the wire. There is another fuel depot at Ocsa, twenty-five	name Nyomja is usually the effirst brought together  nundred meters, north of the ordance, since these two big ough many detours. The depot fifteen meters long by seven meters deep, under concrete. by feliage and turf. Entrance  cidiers. The one-story guardhouse unication with its unit at Pécs, ried by posts inside barbed wire and patrolled. The local e guards fire without varning,  kilometers south of Budapest. It y line. On a small scale, it alread the autumn of 1951 it was again
2. 3.	kilometers east of Pécs. On older maps the place only one that appears. Szederkény and Nyomja wer under the name Szederkény in 1950.  The depot occupied a space of about four by eight highway. The Pécs-Mohacs highway is of great impindustrial cities can be reached by rail only thr has about twenty-five fuel tanks. They are about to eight meters wide. They are buried about ten They are hard to see from above, being concealed is by ladders.  They are guarded by about forty or fifty Soviet s is at the entrance. The guard has telephone command also with Budapest. By day, the depot is guaentanglements. At night this zone is illuminated population is forbidden to approach the wire. The fany one approaches the wired zone.  There is another fuel depot at Ocsa, twenty-five is on the single-track BudapestKecskemét railwaexisted during World War II bout as destroyed. In established. It is now under control of the Air in the Ocsa depot there are fifteen tanks of diff	name Nyomja is usually the effirst brought together  nundred meters, north of the ordance, since these two big ough many detours. The depot fifteen meters long by seven meters deep, under concrete. by foliage and turf. Entrance  oldiers. The one-story guardhouse unication with its unit at Pécs, ried by posts inside barbed wire and patrolied. The local e guards fire without warning,  kilometers south of Budapest. If y line. On a small scale, it alread the autumn of 1951 it was again Force Upkeep Division in Budapest.
2. 3. 4.	kilometers east of Pécs. On older maps the place only one that appears. Szederkény and Nyomja wer under the name Szederkény in 1950.  The depot occupied a space of about four by eight highway. The Pécs-Mohacs highway is of great impindustrial cities can be reached by rail only thrhas about twenty-five fuel tanks. They are about to eight meters wide. They are buried about tent they are hard to see from above, being concealed is by ladders.  They are guarded by about forty or fifty Soviet s is at the entrance. The guard has telephone command also with Budapest. By day, the depot is gua entanglements. At night this zone is illuminated population is forbidden to approach the wire. The if any one approaches the wired zone.  There is another fuel depot at Ocsa, twenty-five is on the single-track BudapestKecskemét railway exists during World War II bout as destroyed. In established. It is now under control of the Air. In the Ocsa depot there are fifteen tanks of diff by eight meters, others twelve by six meters. The fifteen mum thick. All shelters are in concrete.	name Nyomja is usually the effirst brought together  nundred meters, north of the ordance, since these two big ough many detours. The depot fifteen meters long by seven meters deep, under concrete. by foliage and turf. Entrance  oldiers. The one-story guardhouse unication with its unit at Pécs, ried by posts inside barbed wire and patrolied. The local e guards fire without warning,  kilometers south of Budapest. If y line. On a small scale, is alread the autumn of 1951 it was again Force Upkeep Division in Budapest.  erent sizes. Some are fifteen e containing walls are twelve to
2. 3. 4.	kilometers east of Pécs. On older maps the place only one that appears. Szederkény and Nyomja wer under the name Szederkény in 1950.  The depot occupied a space of about four by eight highway. The Pécs-Mohacs highway is of great impindustrial cities can be reached by rail only thr has about twenty-five fuel tanks. They are about to eight meters wide. They are buried about ten! They are hard to see from above, being concealed is by ladders.  They are guarded by about forty or fifty Soviet s is at the entrance. The guard has telephone command also with Budapest. By day, the depot is gua entanglements. At night this zone is illuminated population is forbidden to approach the wire. The figure one approaches the wired zone.  There is another fuel depot at Ocsa, twenty-five is on the single-track BudapestKecskemét railwa existed during World War II bout as destroyed. In established. It is now under control of the Air in the Ocsa depot there are fifteen tanks of diff by eight meters, others twelve by six meters. The fifteen mum thick. All shelters are in concrete head observation.	name Nyomja is usually the effirst brought together  nundred meters, north of the ordance, since these two big ough many detours. The depot fifteen meters long by seven meters deep, under concrete. by foliage and turf. Entrance  oldiers. The one-story guardhouse unication with its unit at Pécs, ried by posts inside barbed wire and patrolied. The local e guards fire without warning,  kilometers south of Budapest. If y line. On a small scale, is alread the autumn of 1951 it was again Force Upkeep Division in Budapest.  erent sizes. Some are fifteen e containing walls are twelve to
2. 3. 4.	kilometers east of Pécs. On older maps the place only one that appears. Szederkény and Nyomja wer under the name Szederkény in 1950.  The depot occupied a space of about four by eight highway. The Pécs-Mohacs highway is of great impindustrial cities can be reached by rail only thrhas about twenty-five fuel tanks. They are about to eight meters wide. They are buried about tent they are hard to see from above, being concealed is by ladders.  They are guarded by about forty or fifty Soviet s is at the entrance. The guard has telephone command also with Budapest. By day, the depot is gua entanglements. At night this zone is illuminated population is forbidden to approach the wire. The if any one approaches the wired zone.  There is another fuel depot at Ocsa, twenty-five is on the single-track BudapestKecskemét railway exists during World War II bout as destroyed. In established. It is now under control of the Air. In the Ocsa depot there are fifteen tanks of diff by eight meters, others twelve by six meters. The fifteen mum thick. All shelters are in concrete.	name Nyomja is usually the effirst brought together  nundred meters, north of the ordance, since these two big ough many detours. The depot fifteen meters long by seven meters deep, under concrete. by foliage and turf. Entrance  oldiers. The one-story guardhouse unication with its unit at Pécs, ried by posts inside barbed wire and patrolied. The local e guards fire without warning,  kilometers south of Budapest. If y line. On a small scale, is alread the autumn of 1951 it was again Force Upkeep Division in Budapest.  erent sizes. Some are fifteen e containing walls are twelve to